

WE WANT YOU!

ARTISTIC MANAGEMENT TEAM

ABOUT US:

LOT was founded in the middle of the pandemic to defy the crisis in an innovative way and to establish the first place for transdisciplinary art & artistic research in Vienna. Together, space (LOT) and association (ECHOLOT) act as a networking environment and cultural initiative. In this composition we dedicate ourselves to dialogue and exchange on innovative formats at decentralized locations, questioning art-space and work processes. We network with the national and international art world to create new opportunities and forms of collaboration.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR:

- Fresh perspectives that complement our transdisciplinary vision
- People who are not only passionate about art but also about its necessary organizational structure
- Sense of responsibility, initiative and team spirit
- Partners in crime for innovative, progressive formats and their development

ESTIMATED WORKLOAD:

- 12 h/week + Jour Fixe always on Mondays (working language German/English)
+ 1 time per year annual planning and monthly structural meetings
- We are oriented towards holocratic organizational models and experiment with self-organization, teambuilding and artistic formats
- Payment is currently project-specific. We have submitted an annual grant for 2023 :)

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conception, implementation & further development of extraordinary projects/formats
- Management & organization of the transdisciplinary orientation
- Conception of a contemporary, visionary program
- Development of strategies taking into account local & international developments
- Events at the interface of art, society, artistic research & research
- Expansion of the local, national and international network
- Curating of an own artistic section

WE OFFER:

- A young, open, communicative team where you can try out and grow
- Cool people from the fields of theater, dance, performance, artistic research, art, cultural management, journalism and new media
- The coolest new workplace in the Brotfabrik in the 10th district, which offers all imaginable possibilities and adapts to the needs of the formats (performance, exhibitions, lab, party, rehearsals, co-working office and much more)
- Many different experiences and competences from the cultural sector (cultural and funding management, concept development, content-related artistic work, crafts, festivals, networking, etc.)
- Flexible working (all of us have also other projects)

APPLY NOW!

If you are interested in joining us, please send us an email now! We are interested in the topics you are currently working on, what interests you most about collective leadership and in which area you would like to get involved.

Also write us if you have any questions or need more information!

We want to constantly expand our team with new perspectives and would therefore like to encourage applicants from marginalized groups to apply and place special emphasis on this during the selection process!
